

My Design Statement.

“Design is about a well researched and theory based tasteful selection of colour, form and function to create a design that does not only fulfill its purpose but expresses the designer’s personal meanings, knowledge and feelings that in turn is embodied within their design”.